

AFFIDAVIT
(AFFIDAVIT FOR DEVELOPMENT PROJECT
WITH BUDGET OF LESS THAN $200,000)

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The Affidavit found below for development projects with a budget of less than $200,000 is the form that can be used to prepare the affidavit for the Canadian Independent Film & Video Fund (CIFVF). This Affidavit is required only with the closing or final documentation to request the last payment.

Section 1 is standard wording for affidavits in any province or territory. The second line beginning with the word "Of" refers to your production company name.

In Section 2 refers to the total cost of the development project (including deferrals).

Section 3 is a statement that attests to the expenditures of the development budget being made to, or in respect of, Canadians involved with the development of the project.

The statement of costs of the development budget should be appended to the Affidavit.

Affidavits may be signed by lawyers, notaries and Commissioners of Oaths. Some municipalities (such as the City of Ottawa) offer Commissioner of Oath services.
